6. Can I combine Muktinath with a Pokhara sightseeing tour?

Yes. The itinerary already combines the Muktinath pilgrimage with time in Pokhara. Travelers can enjoy attractions such as Phewa Lake, Sarangkot, Bindabasini Temple, Davis Falls, Gupteshwor Mahadev Cave, and the World Peace Stupa alongside their Muktinath visit.

7. Can I take a bath under the 108 water taps at Muktinath?

Yes, pilgrims traditionally take a ritual bath under the 108 sacred water taps at Muktinath. However, the water can be extremely cold, particularly outside the warmer months. Travelers should consider their health and comfort before taking the ritual bath and follow local customs and site guidance.

8. What should I pack for the Lower Mustang Muktinath Tour?

Pack according to the season, but some useful essentials include warm clothing, a fleece or jacket, comfortable walking shoes, sunglasses, sunscreen, a reusable water bottle, personal medicines, a rain jacket during the monsoon, a power bank, and your passport or identification documents. Warm layers are particularly important because temperatures around Muktinath can drop significantly, especially in the morning and evening.

9. What type of accommodation is provided during the Muktinath tour?

The package includes accommodation in 3-star hotels and suitable lodges, generally on a twin-sharing basis. Accommodation is arranged in Kathmandu, Pokhara, and Jomsom according to the itinerary. Travelers who prefer a different room arrangement or upgraded accommodation can discuss their requirements when booking.
