

Muktinath Tour - 8 Days

MUKTINATH TEMPLE TOUR BLEND OF CULTURE, NATURE, AND DEVOTION

This 8-day Nepal tour takes you to the heart of the country's most famous places: Kathmandu, Pokhara, Muktinath, and Mustang. From busy temples to peaceful lakes, from snow-capped peaks to ancient spiritual sites, every day brings something new and beautiful. The tour combines Hindu and Buddhist pilgrimage sites, mountain views, charming villages, and the Nepali lifestyle.

MUKTINATH DARSHAN YATRA FROM KATHMANDU AND POKHARA

The highlight of this journey is the Muktinath Temple, one of the most sacred temples for both Hindus and Buddhists. Located at 3,800 meters in the Mustang district, Muktinath is known for its 108 water taps and eternal flame. People believe a bath here brings peace and moksha (liberation). The drive to Muktinath from Pokhara and Jomsom is scenic and exciting, with stunning views of Nilgiri, Dhaulagiri, and Annapurna ranges.

PEACEFUL POKHARA AND MAGICAL MOUNTAINS

Before and after your Muktinath Darshan, you'll spend time in Pokhara, the city of lakes. The calm water of Phewa Lake, the sunrise view from Sarangkot, and visits to famous places like Davis Falls, Gupteshwor Cave, and World Peace Pagoda make your time here peaceful and refreshing. You'll also enjoy a relaxing night in Naudanda, where the mountain views feel unreal.

SPIRITUAL VIBES OF KATHMANDU VALLEY

Your journey starts and ends in Kathmandu, the cultural capital of Nepal. From the powerful Pashupatinath Temple to the ancient Swayambhunath Stupa and Kathmandu Durbar Square, each place has its own story, energy, and spiritual presence. In the evening, you can witness the Aarati ceremony at Pashupatinath, a special moment filled with music, light, and devotion.

EASY AND COMFORTABLE NEPAL PILGRIMAGE TOUR

This is one of the best overland tours in Nepal, suitable for all age groups. No need to trek or hike—everything is by road, so you can relax and enjoy the journey. The tour is perfect for families, senior citizens, or anyone who wants to do Muktinath Darshan by road with extra comfort. We make sure you have clean hotels, tasty food, and a caring team throughout the trip.

A JOURNEY YOU'LL REMEMBER FOREVER

The Kathmandu Pokhara, Muktinath Temple tour is more than just a travel plan. It's a chance to connect with yourself, with nature, and with something higher. Whether you are coming for religious reasons, mountain views, or peaceful moments, this trip gives you all of it. Nepal welcomes you with open arms, and this tour will leave you with a full heart and unforgettable memories.

DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival in Kathmandu and Evening Aarati at Pashupatinath

After you land at Tribhuvan International Airport in Kathmandu, our representative will warmly welcome you with a smile. Then we will drive you to your hotel and help with the check-in process. You can rest for a while or explore the local area near your hotel. In the evening, we will take you to Pashupatinath Temple to attend the peaceful evening Aarati on the banks of the Bagmati River. It's a beautiful spiritual experience to begin your Nepal journey.

Day 2: Full Day Kathmandu Sightseeing Tour

After breakfast at your hotel, we begin our Kathmandu city sightseeing tour. First, we visit the sacred Pashupatinath Temple, then the nearby Gyajeshwari Temple and the sleeping Vishnu at Jal Narayan (Budhanilkantha). After that, we visit the Swayambhunath Stupa—also known as the Monkey Temple—which sits on a hill with a nice view of the city. We also explore the historical Kathmandu Durbar Square, where you can see old temples, palaces, and local life. After the tour, we return to the hotel for rest.

Day 3: Drive from Kathmandu to Pokhara

Today, after breakfast, we leave for Pokhara, a beautiful city also known as the city of lakes. The drive is about 200 kilometers and takes around 6 to 7 hours, depending on road conditions. Along the way, you'll see rivers, small towns, green hills, and mountain views on clear days. After reaching Pokhara, we check in at the hotel and you can enjoy the evening walking around the lakeside area.

Day 4: Drive to Muktinath and Evening Aarati

After an early breakfast at the hotel in Pokhara, we drive to the gateway of Annapurna Base Camp, “Nayapul”, and then separate from Nayapul to Jomsom, the gateway to Mustang. From there, we continue our journey to Muktinath Temple, one of the holiest places for Hindus and Buddhists. It is also the ending point of Annapurna Circuit Trek. After reaching the temple, you can offer your prayers, bathe under the 108 holy water taps, and spend time in the peaceful temple area. In the evening, you can attend the Muktinath Aarati, which adds a divine touch to the visit. After that, we drive back to Jomsom for overnight.

Day 5: Drive Back to Naudanda - Himalayan View and Sunset

After breakfast in Jomsom, we start driving back toward Pokhara. On the way, we stop at Naudanda, a peaceful place known for beautiful views of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri ranges. You'll be staying at a scenic resort like Himalayan Deurali, which offers an amazing place to relax and enjoy the mountain sunset. It's a perfect place to unwind after the long journey.

Day 6: Sunrise from Sarangkot and Pokhara City Tour

We wake up early and drive to Sarangkot, one of the best viewpoints near Pokhara. With a cup of tea or coffee in hand, we watch the sunrise over the golden Himalayan peaks, including Machhapuchhre (Fishtail), Annapurna, and Dhaulagiri. After breakfast, we go for Pokhara sightseeing. We visit Bindabasini Temple, enjoy boating on Phewa Lake, and visit Tal Barahi Temple in the middle of the lake. Later, we explore Davis Falls, Gupteshwor Mahadev Cave, and end the day with a peaceful visit to the World Peace Stupa (Pumdikot). In the evening, we return to the hotel.

Day 7: Drive Back to Kathmandu and Farewell Dinner

After breakfast, we drive back to Kathmandu. The drive is relaxing and gives you one last chance to enjoy Nepal's beautiful landscapes. After reaching your hotel in Kathmandu, you can rest or do some shopping in the local market. In the evening, we arrange a farewell dinner with a cultural program, where you can enjoy traditional Nepali food and music.

Day 8: Departure from Kathmandu

After breakfast at the hotel, we will drop you off at Tribhuvan International Airport for your flight back home. We hope you had a beautiful experience and return with lots of blessings and good memories from Kathmandu, Pokhara, and Muktinath.
