Shivapuri Day Hike - 1 Days

Join us for an unforgettable Shivapuri day hike—grab your gear and let's explore together!

The Shivapuri Day Hike provides an opportunity to explore one of the highest points surrounding the Kathmandu Valley. Situated in Shivapuri Nagarjun National Park, just a short 1 km drive north of the valley, this hike takes you to Shivapuri Peak, which rises to an altitude of 2,732 meters, making it the second-highest hill in the area. The trail winds through the Himalayan subtropical forest zone, celebrated for its untouched wilderness. It is renowned for its rich biodiversity, lush greenery, spiritual landmarks, and stunning panoramic views of the Himalayas. The area holds cultural significance for both Hindus, being the origin of the Bagmati River at Bagdwar, and Buddhists at the serene Nagi Gompa Monastery.

This hike offers a perfect escape into nature, providing a serene setting amidst the city's hustle and bustle, with peaceful trails and a refreshing mountain atmosphere. It's particularly appealing to nature lovers, spiritual seekers, and photographers alike.

Highlights

- Breathtaking views of the Langtang, Ganesh Himal, and other Himalayan ranges
- A visit to Nagi Gompa, a tranquil Buddhist monastery
- The sacred source of the Bagmati River at Bagdwar

Why Choose This Destination

The Shivapuri Day Hike is a quick and easily accessible getaway from Kathmandu, making it an ideal introduction to hiking in Nepal. Just an hour from the city center, it beautifully blends nature and spirituality with visits to monasteries and sacred rivers. Along the way, you can engage with
